

St. Martin's Children Help Afghan Children
On Sunday, September 25, the 4th and 5th grade Sunday School classes packed up 15 boxes of school supplies and donated clothing for children in Afghanistan. Parishioner David Wade, a lieutenant in Afghanistan, sent an e-mail to his parents, Robin and Mac Wade, asking for our help since the "children have nothing." Thank you for all of your donations to this effort.